About the Editors

Professor G. N. Khaki is presently Director International Centre for Spiritual Studies, Islamic University of Science and Technology (IUST), Kashmir and has held several academic and administrative positions at the University of Kashmir, as Director Centre of Central Asian Studies, Director Shah-i-Hamadan Institute of Islamic Studies, Director Area Studies, Dean Students Welfare, and Provost of Boys' and Girls' Hostels. Prof. Khaki's scholarly works have been widely published in leading journals and edited volumes across the globe. He has edited nine books focusing on diverse dimensions of Islamic Studies and the spiritual legacy of Shaikh al-'Alam رحمه الله عليه. He has been chief editor of The Journal of Central Asian Studies, Insight Islamicus, and The 'Alamdār: A Multilingual Journal of Kashmiri Society and Culture. Besides Central Asian Republics, Prof. Khaki has visited over twenty countries, including Algeria, Egypt, Iran, Iraq, Switzerland, France, Azerbaijan, Qatar, and Bahrain.

Aamir Habib holds Ph.D. from Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi. His research explores mystic poetry in Kashmiri language and the region's religious traditions, examining how mystical thought shapes cultural expression and historical memory in South Asia. Grounded in comparative religions, his work reflects interest in religious pluralism and the interpretive lenses through which religions are understood. He has previously taught at Jamia Millia Islamia and Central University of Kashmir, and currently serves as Assistant Professor at International Centre for Spiritual Studies, Islamic University of Science and Technology. In addition to a book, he has contributed to academic journals, edited volumes, magazines, newspapers and digital platforms.

Ghazi Nazir Naqash holds a B.Tech. in Electronics & Communication Engineering from the Islamic University of Science and Technology and an M.A. in Islamic Studies from the University of Kashmir, reflecting a unique blend of technical and humanities-based education. He has completed his M.Phil. in Islamic Studies from the Central University of Kashmir, and is currently serving as Assistant Professor at International Centre for Spiritual Studies, Islamic University of Science and Technology, Kashmir. His academic journey underscores a deep commitment to interdisciplinary scholarship and excellence in Islamic studies. He is the author of Origin and Development of Tafīr Literature in Kashmir, and his research articles have appeared in several academic journals.
