

Kashmiri Identity: An Understanding from Philosophical and Cultural Perspective

Mudasir Ahmad Tantray

Assistant Professor, Averroes Centre of Philosophical Studies,
IUST Awantipora, mdsrtntr3@gmail.com

Tariq Rafeeq Khan

Assistant Professor, Averroes Centre of Philosophical Studies, IUST
Awantipora Khantariq12213@gmail.com.

IJKS: Vol. 5 - No. 2/2023

provides a forum for scientific exchange and public dissemination of up-to-date scientific knowledge on the Kashmir conflict. The IJKS is an independent, peer-reviewed, open-access journal. The topics on which we concentrate—Kashmir conflict and violence—have always been central to various disciplines. Consequently, the journal encompasses contributions from a wide range of disciplines, including international affairs, political studies (geopolitics, political economy and other dynamics, diplomacy and public advocacy, law-based approaches, governance and economy (including micro and macroeconomics), self-determination, and other solidarity rights public international law (including human rights and humanitarian laws and intergovernmental organizations), criminology, economics, education, ethnology, history, political science, psychology, social anthropology, sociology.

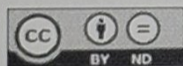

The IJKS

All articles are gathered in yearly volumes, identified by a QR Code in print volume with article-wise pagination. For more information, please visit www.kprijk.org

APA: Tantray, M. A., & Khan, T. R. (2023). Kashmiri Identity: An Understanding from Philosophical and Cultural Perspective. International Journal of Kashmir Studies, 5(2).

Suggested

Citation: Harvard: Tantray, M. A., and T. R. Khan. "Kashmiri Identity: An Understanding from Philosophical and Cultural Perspective." International Journal of Kashmir Studies 5, no. 2 (2023).

This work is licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution-No Derivatives License. ISSN: 2706-5863